AMERICAN MUSEUM.

THE American Museum of Literature and the Arts, will combine the solidity of a review with the lighter miscellany of a magazine; besides impartial reviews of important works and short notices of minor literary productions by the editors, it will embrace essays, tales, historiettes, poetry, literary and scientific intelligence, and translations from standard and periodical works in other languages, contributed by some of the ablest writers of the day.

The Magazine will also contain a series of reviews of such writers as have, by their talents, shed lustre upon American literature. The reviews will be accompanied by portraits of the authors, engraved on steel, by the best artists. The work will be beautifully printed, with new type, upon fine paper, and will make two volumes each year, of more than 500 pages each.

Agencies will be established in the periodical cities, and arrangements made to deliver the work free of postage. As the Museum is printed on a medium and a half sheet, the highest postage that can be charged to any part of the country, for one year, will be $1.05 cents. Persons desirous of acting as agents, will please apply post paid. Terms. $5 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first number, 5 copies $20. NATHAN C. BROOKS,
J. E. SNODGRASS,
Editors and Proprietors.

RICHARDSON'S DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE,

Parts 19 and 20, this day published.

There is not a work, either of general practical utility, or of philology in particular, that has so largely united the suffrages of the public press in its favor, as this Dictionary. Both in Europe and in America it has received the meed of general approbation. The compiler has assumed the principle of Home Tooke, that each word had originally but one meaning, and that all the result of combination, modification, or the mutability to which language itself is subject. In the plan of this Dictionary the Compiler has adopted the rule which Dr. Johnson originally proposed for his own government, viz: that of giving, first the primitive meaning, then the consequential, and afterwards the metaphorical; accompanying his definitions by quotations, commencing with the earliest authorities and bringing them down to the most recent dates. Mr. Richardson has performed his task with fidelity and skill, his researches have been most laborious as well as judicious, and he has bestowed, in this work a boon to literature greater than any that has been presented since the days of Johnson himself.

☞ The publication of this work which was suspended in consequence of the pressure upon the mercantile world is now resumed, and the work being stereotyped will be completed in a few weeks.
WILLIAM JACKSON, 102 Broadway,

[illegible] STOVE.

THIS STOVE was invented and patented by Professor Olmsted of Yale College. It was originally designed for study chambers, but being found equally well adapted to family apartments, it came immediately into extensive use among the inhabitants of New Haven, and the demand for it here and elsewhere is rapidly increasing.

It is at present made chiefly of SHEET IRON, this material being esteemed on all accounts the the most eligible; but it may be constructed either wholly or in part of cast iron should that be preferred.

The chief peculiarity of [illegible] consists in substituting for the open pipe usually employed to distribute the heat generated by anthracite coal, an apparatus called a RADIATOR, which though of comparatively small dimensions, has an effect in absorbing and distributing the heat produced by coal equal to that of a very long pipe. By this means, the unsightly appearance of a stove pipe, traversing the apartment, is avoided, while the saving of material greatly diminishes the expense. The Radiator consists of two concentric cylinders having a narrow space of half an inch to an inch between them, through which the heated current is made to circulate in its passage from the chamber of combustion to the chimney. The current is thus brought CLOSELY INTO CONTACT with the two contiguous surfaces, heating at once the outer and inner cylinder. The former sends it heat into the apartment by direct radiation; the latter being open at the top and bottom, causes a current of air to flow through it like the chimney of an Argand lamp. The air within being rarefied by heat, flows out in a continual current at the top while the colder air of the apartment flows in at the bottom, and becomes heated in turn. This adds greatly to the effect, contributing more indeed towards heating an apartment than the direct radiation from the surface, and equalling the temperature in a remarkable degree.

The objects aimed at in the construction of this Stove are to be SIMPLE, so that domestics can easily manage it; to be quickly kindled; to be capable of affording either a MILD or AN INTENSE HEAT, according to the state of the weather, to preserve the AIR of the apartment PURE AND WHOLESOME, to avoid all inconveniences from DUST, and finally to be CHEAP and ECONOMICAL.

It is confidently believed, that this stove fulfils as many of the conditions as any one now invented, and to a degree attainable only by an inventor alike the present long and intimately acquainted with the laws of heat.

The CHAMBER STOVE is usually from 9 to 10 inches in diameter, and from 21 to 30 inches high. Its position is commonly on the hearth at the usual place of the andirons. The fireplace being closed up two pipes, one from the back of each cylinder, enters the wall thus formed, (or a sheet iron fire board,) each pipe being furnished with a damper. This variety is adapted to student's rooms, offices, and particularly to NURSERIES, affording as it does, peculiar facilities for warming liquids, or medicinal preparations.

The PARLOR STOVE has two radiators, and is capable of warming the largest rooms in ordinary houses.

The HALL STOVE is adapted to situations where a communication is made with a distant flue by means of a long pipe, as in halls, stores, &c. One ton of fine and half a ton of coarse coal, is an adequate supply for the chamber stove for one season. Two tons is a full allowance for the parlor stove, when made of the usual dimensions.

To be had only at No. 8, Central Street.

☞ The Canadian difficulties are becoming daily more and more interesting, and sympathy for the [illegible] on the part of our citizens is daily increasing, and it is natural that it should be so, that we should favor the extension of Republican principles, and the establishment of Republican Institutions. The late ill success of the Canadians will not dishearten them, the revolutionists are increasing in numbers, and in strength, and they will not cease in their struggle for liberty and self-government short of the accomplishment of their object. On this subject the National Gazette remarks:

"Any one who imagines that Great Britain will [illegible] maintain her supremacy in America except by the constant presence of an overwhelming military force, must take a narrow view of the workings of that spirit, the change of voluntary submission of which after it had [illegible] [illegible] And in the history of nations. All the tendencies of the philosophy, the public and social economy of the age, are towards our own system of political equality. It is too late for the advocates of aristocratic institutions, in the least objectionable theory or most successful operation of them, to hope for their peaceable maintenance where any considerable portion of the people have resolved upon their destruction. Our own revolution, begun without pecuniary means, with a small army of recruits, and sustained admirably for a [illegible] without any foreign assistance, against the most powerful nation of the [illegible], proves what popular determination will effect when it becomes active in the cause of popular rights. The Canadians have not the grounds of complaint against the parent country which aroused this people to achieve their independence. But they do not govern themselves; and this they feel an all-sufficient reason for resolving to take the reins into their own hands, at any hazard."

New Hampshire. At a convention of the Whigs of Rockingham district, N. H, held last week, Hon. Ichabod Bartlett was nominated as a candidate for Representative to Congress, in place of Judge Porter who declined the nomination of the State convention. At this convention the following resolution was adopted:

"Not that we loved Cæsar less, but that we loved Rome more."

Resolved, That though we will cheerfully acquiesce in the nomination of the candidate who may be nominated by the National Whig Convention to be held at Harrisburgh, in Pennsylvania, in December, 1839, for the office of President of the United States, yet that as Gen. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, of Ohio, received a large number of votes of the Whig Electors of President and Vice President in 1836, and also a greater number of votes of the Whig party throughout the Union than did all the other Whig candidates, and that as nothing has since transpired to lessen our confidence in his talents, integrity and fitness for that high office, we would earnestly recommend him to the Whigs of the Union, as a man in all respects qualified to do this country honor as her Chief Magistrate.

☞ Mississippian announces the resignation of Mr. Trotter, United States Senator from Mississippi. Several members of the Legislature have also resigned their seats, and elections to fill the vacancies have been ordered for next month.

The Governor has not yet appointed a Senator in place of Mr. Trotter.

The Mississippian gives the official returns of votes for State Treasurer, from 41 counties, by which it appears that Dr. Silas Brown, the Whig candidate, has received a majority of 1567 votes, over Col. Fall, his Van Buren opponent, and comes near having as many votes as all three of the other candidates put together.

☞ The friends of the law prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors in Massachusetts, have succeeded in electing a majority of its friends to the Legislature, and it is believed the law will be sustained. The Temperance Gazette, in alluding to this subject says, "Were we to imitate our political contemporaries, we should display [illegible] columns the fair folds of the Temperance Banner, and inscribe over it, in flaring capitals: Glorious Victory: One Hundred Guns for Old Massachusetts."

[illegible]

From Maine to Louisiana, and from Passamaquoddy River to "Sam's Rocky Isle," there is a powerful army of Smiths; from Halifax [illegible] [illegible] Bay, and from [illegible] Swamp, there is a large congregation of religiously inclined Smiths; from New Zembla to the Cove of Cork, and from Westminster Abbey to the Mountains of [illegible], there is a heterogeneous mass of Smiths; from Hudson's Bay to the Galen Mines of Missouri, and from Patagonia to the Walls of the Celestial Empire", there are millions of Smiths; on the wide bosom of the fathomless Ocean, there is always a Captain Smith; and his chief mate John Smith is never ashore.

But, independent of the mighty host recorded upon every page of the terraqueous volume, the name of Smith is dear and sacred to every American; and it is in the Declaration of Independence in the catalogue of Governors in the Halls of Congress, in the Colleges of Education in the Army and Navy in the Pulpit of Divinity— in the Judicial Tribunals and in the Editorial Chair of universal Knowledge.

Moreover, when General Smith, and his countless myriads of relatives, array themselves in the field of battle, they will not only prevent "wars, and rumors of wars," but they will speedily conquer all the opposition forces of creation. Although the Smiths are divided in political opinions, nevertheless, Mister Smith is the most popular man in existence; and am sure he would receive more votes for Chief Magistrate, than any other candidate for that important station, provided his cousin John Smith officiated in electioneering among the rest of the family.

However, the name of Smith is not infallible; it is liable to err, and more liable to gross calumniations, than any other offspring of mortal nomenclature. It is frequently made "the sport of courts, and jest of Kings," as well as a loop-hole for rogues, and other things. Oft times has it been profaned by felons of another name; oft-times has it been falsely registered on the list of convicts—on the log-book of mutiny—on the prison walls on the winding-sheet of iniquity, and on the tomb stones of disgrace.

It is well known that John Smith is forced to carry the sinful burthen imposed upon him by the nameless renegades of another household. He is compelled to suffer for transgressions which he never committed! He is accused of being the notorious leader of all criminals! But, gentle reader, he is the most innocent member of the human race, according to the authentic code of analogy and reason; if a man is arrested for committing acts of fraud, theft, or murder, whose family appellation is more extended in syllabic measure than the brief cognomen of our sketch, he instantly styles himself "John Smith," in order to secure a good title in behalf of his bad personal estate!!! Thus we find poor John Smith loaded with crimes not his own; honest John Smith sentenced for stealing nothing; and harmless John Smith suspended between heaven and earth in lieu of his wicked neighbor!!!

Eastern Rail Road. The Salem Gazette says, The work has commenced in good earnest, on the part of the road between Salem and Ipswich. A large gang of laborers commenced work in Beverly last week. We understand the contracts have been made on very favorable terms for the corporation. The number of passengers over the above road for the week ending Nov. 24th, was 4030.

Michigan Election. The Detroit Advertiser of the 16th gives the returns for Congress from twenty-nine towns, and the vote is very close. For Wells, Whig, 1273, for Crary, V. B. 1259. Majority for Crary, 14. The vote throughout the state is exceedingly close.

The Middlesex Canal in Massachusetts, and the New York Canals are closed by ice, and the New York Express fears that the winter embargo has already been laid upon the Hudson river.

The following article from the "Irish Railway [illegible] in favor of [illegible] increase of travel [illegible]

EFFECTS OF VARIOUS RAILWAYS ON THE AMOUNT OF INTERCOURSE.

"By referring to our notes A and B, it will be seen that on the Stockton and Darlington line, the passenger traffic, prior to the establishment of the railway amounted only to 4000 persons in the year; it now exceeds 0,000. On the Bolton line, the average weekly number of passengers is 2500, whereas the number of coach journeys, out and in per week, which the railway has superseded, amount only to 22, carrying, [illegible] persons weekly average, about 200 or 300. On the Newcastle and Carlisle road, prior to the railway, the number of persons the public coaches were licensed to carry in a week was 243; or both ways, 0,0; now the average daily number of passengers by the railway for the whole distance ([illegible] miles) is 258, or 1500 in the week. The number of passengers on the Dundee and Newtyle line, exceeds, at this time, 60,000 annually; the estimated number of persons who performed the same journey, previous to the opening of the railway, having been [illegible].

Previous to the opening of the railway between Liverpool and Manchester, there were about 400 passengers per day, or 146,000 a year, travelling between these places by coaches; whereas the present number, by rail road alone, exceeds 500,000.

In foreign countries, the results arising from the same causes are equally striking. The number of persons who usually pass by the road between Brussels and Antwerp was 75,000 in the year; but since the rail road has been opened from the [illegible] increased to 500,000; and since it has carried all thro' to Antwerp, the number has exceeded a million. The opening a branch from Malines to Termonde appears to have added 200,000 to the latter number; so that the passenger traffic of that rail road, superseding a road traffic of only 75,000 persons, now amounts to 1,200,000. It is remarkable that on this, as on most other rail roads, the greater number of passengers are those who travel short distances, being as two to one compared with those who go the whole distance.

This appears from a statement read before the Statistical Society of Manchester, showing that, between April 30th and August 15th, 1836 122,417 persons travelled the whole distance, and 244,834 short distances, chiefly to and from Malines. He further states that "nearly one third of the whole revenue of the railway is derived from travelling to and from Malines, and paying a fee of about 60 centimes, or nearly 6d. sterling." On the same authority we learn another fact, most deserving of attention in calculating the probable success of a rail road in such a country as Ireland, viz: that nearly three-fifths of the whole revenue of the company are derived from passengers of the lower class, paying a very low fare.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS.

The Kingston, U. C. Chronicle, gives the following authentic particulars of the killed and wounded at the affaire of Prescott. The British lost but one man on the last day:

The only loss sustained by us on this occasion, was one of the light company of the gallant 83d Regiment, who was shot through the head.

The loss of the pirates, as far as we can learn, is as follows:

Killed on the 13th,	67
Left dead on the field, on Friday night,	35
Total killed,	102
Prisoners taken on Tuesday and sent to Fort Henry,	30
Surrendered unconditionally of Friday,	132
Total prisoners,	162

Many of the pirates it is supposed, under the cloak of night, skulked away in the woods, of whom we hope soon to hear good accounts from the bands of our brave militia, who are devoted and enthusiastic in the cause of their country.

We cannot ascertain the actual number of pirates that landed; they could not however, have been fewer than 300. One of the wounded prisoners Kemble, from Brownville, states that the chief officer, a General Birge, from Madison county, with the greater half of the force intended to land, remained on the opposite side. From this prisoner, who seems to be an intelligent young man, who sadly laments the deceptions which induced himself and others to engage in a cause, the object of which now appears was to force republicanism on a people who detest the very name of it, we farther learn that Col. Brown, who was wounded, and whose body was burnt on Tuesday in a barn set fire to by his own party, was Chas. F. Brown, son to Judge Brown, Postmaster at Brownville, and nephew to old Gen Brown.

Among the trophies captured was a white silk flag, having an eagle and a star painted on it, with the words "Onondago Hunters," "Canada Liberated," fancifully worked upon it, as is said by the fair and foolish republicanesses of Ogdensburgh.

The manifestation of feeling in this town, on the return of the expedition, as might be expected, was gratifying. It was no sooner ascertained what the result was, and that the prisoners were to be landed, than the principal street through which the triumphal cavalcade was to pass, was brilliantly illuminated; and the orderly populace, numbering some thousands, that accompanied the cortege, spoke volumes by their alternate hozzas of thanks to the British grenadiers that [illegible] lend us, and the groan of derision with which they saluted the pirates. We were much struck at the abominable weapons which the pirates had carried about them. The bowie-knife is certainly a fit instrument in the hands of such a set of cut throats.

The Chronicle also gives the names of 30 prisoners who were captured on the first day, 28 of whom were from the neighboring counties of New York, and one was an Englishman, said to have deserted from one of the British regiments, and one was an Irishman.

We have only room to make the following extract from the Gazette, wherein his Excellency the Lieut. Governor, states [illegible]

"Twenty-eight persons have been brought up to Kingston; and a court martial will forthwith be directed to assemble to try them for their lawless and unprovoked aggression, and for the murder of Her Majesty's faithful subjects."

'Tis wond'rous strange, and yet 'tis true,
That [illegible]
The deeds of other men to view,
As if their own were right.

And if a piece of news comes out,
They'll eagerly pursue it;
Then hand the charming dish about,
And add a little to it.

Each fault they'll try to magnify,
Yet seeming to bemoan—
The mote within a brother's eye,
Are blinded to their own.

And if a brother chance to stray,
Or fortune on him frown;
Tho' humbled in the dust he lay,
The text is, "Keep him down."

They'll preach up penance, with a sigh,
To cure, or nothing can
Suffering [illegible] good, I'll not deny,
But not when sent by man.

Each worthy deed is now forgot,
As if not worth retaining;
But O! let failings fill the pot,
And slander suck the draining.

Unto the dregs she draws it out,
Delighted with her labors,
Then bears the charming swill about,
To treat her thirsty neighbors.

'Neath friendship's mask she sometimes lurks,
And smiling fawns around you;
Concealed, she more securely works,
And kisses, but to wound you.

Detested pest of social joy,
Thou spoiler of life's pleasures;
Like Samson's foxes would destroy
What's more than all our treasures.

Dr. Wolfred Nelson, Mr. Bouchette, H. Viger and Dr. Gauvin, arrived in this village at about 3 o'clock on Monday morning, having travelled from Whitehall by land. We were glad to observe that all of these worthy men were in good health, but apparently care-worn and fatigued by there journey. Their deliverance must be considered as providential, as a British sloop of war was despatched on the breaking out of the present disturbances in Canada, to order the detention of these unfortunate men in Bermuda. The vessel arrived only two or three days after they had sailed. Dr. Nelson left here the same day in the stage for St. Albans, where he was to meet with his friends. On leaving the Hotel, he was greeted with six hearty cheers, by the assembled inhabitants of the village. Burlington Sentinel.

A Meteor. The Nantucket Enquirer gives the following description of a meteor observed at that place.

Friday evening, 5 o'clock. Some meteoric substance, like a fiery rocket, has just past in quick movement across the horizon, descending east and west, leaving behind it a visable track, and terminating like the tail of a comet; on the south side of the track was a cloud beautifully mottled with the last tints of the departing day

The Mormons. The St. Louis papers of the 15th inst., give some further particulars of the Mormon War. The number of Mormons who surrendered to Generals Lucas and Atchison was about 400, including five of their principal leaders. The terms of capitulation were, that such men as could be identified as having committed acts of violence were to be given up, and the rest were to leave the State, paying for the destroyed property of the citizens. These seem to be rather severe terms. Those who could be proved to be guilty, were to be given up and tried for treason, and the rest to pay the damages, and to be banished from the State.

We learn from the New-York Courier that a family in that city, consisting of a mother, two young children and an elder sister, were near meeting with a sudden death from the inhalation of gas of anthracite coal in consequence of the flue intended to carry off the gas, becoming closed.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS.

THE best medicine for Coughs, Colds, and all Lung complaints, Hooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the side, Liver Complaint, and affection of the Liver, is Mrs. M. N. GARDNER'S INDIAN BALSAM OF LIVERWORT, containing the [illegible] of many Roots and Herbs. Among the number are Liverwort, Elecampane, [illegible], Asclepias tuberosa, Iceland Moss, Squills, Hyssop, [illegible], also many other herbs not to be procured in this part of the globe. For the last ten years this valuable Balsam has been in extensive use in most of the principal towns in the Northern states, and, by the permission of those that have tested its efficacy, the Proprietor has made arrangements to furnish the druggist of this place, that all may avail themselves of this remedy, before the disease gets so seated that no medicine will remove it. Its effect on obstinate coughs is truly wonderful, and the following individuals voluntarily give their names as among the number who have proved its efficacy. From the knowledge of the materials and the favorable effect upon their patients, we have prescribed Mrs. G.'s [illegible] as a valuable medicine for what it is recommended. Calvin Ellis, M. D., Albert Williams, M. D., members of the Massachusetts Medical Society. Also, see certificates on the directions, what astonishing cures it has effected for E. Webster, Boston; Horace Gail, Bristol, Me., Thos. Haskins jr., Boston, Elish Horton, firm of Baker & Horton, Boston, David Woodbury, clerk of Josiah Steadman, Miss L. Howard. Thousands of others could be named, where it is known. As a security against counterfeits, each direction will be signed by the Proprietor, M. N. Gardner. Proprietor's residence 481 Washington Street, Boston, where all orders can be addressed. Also observe on the bottle, impressed in the glass, the name Mrs. M. N. Gardner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier and Guild, in Portland by J. Durgin & Co., and Wm. W. Lincoln, and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wep4taw6w oct 23

TO LOVERS OF COMFORT AND EASE.

TOOTH-ACHE! TOOTH-ACHE!!

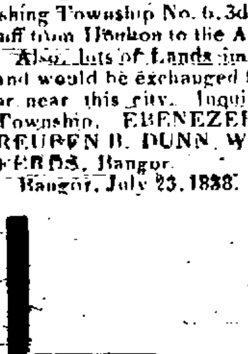
Why will you suffer with the TOOTH-ACHE, when there is a perfect remedy!

BROWN'S EXTRACT OF GALL AND KREOSOTE will cure the Tooth-ache; also removes all unpleasant smell from the breath. From experience we can testify to this fact. J. A. Dill, 413 Washington Street, Miss Mary Seavy, Pleasant Street, N. Tolman, 380 Washington Street, Geo. [illegible], Lucas Place, Fitz Henry Stephens, master of transportation cars on Worcester railroad, and thousands of other references could be made. Removes all soreness, &c. [illegible] to be filled. It is considered by the inhabitants of Massachusetts, particularly in the city of Boston, where it is best known, and where the fortunate inventor resides, one of the greatest comforts to mankind that was ever discovered. It will remove this excruciating pain, the Toothache. Be particular to call for Brown's Extract of Gall and Kreosote, and observe his signature as a security against counterfeits, as there are other articles in market intended to be palmed off for this invaluable preparation. It is now to be found in all the principal towns throughout the United States.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier & Guild, in Portland by J. Durgin & Co. and Wm W. Lincoln and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wep14taw6m oct 24 1838

GENUINE BUFFALO OIL.

THE HAIR! THE HAIR! THE HAIR!



THE greatest ornament to the human body is a splendid head of hair. It has recently been discovered that the genuine Buffalo's Oil is a sovereign remedy for baldness, prevents the hair from coming off, promotes the growth, continues the luxuriance, and improves the beauty. It is far superior to any other animal or vegetable oil, and in case of fever, where the hair becomes dry and begins to fall off, there is no application more effectual in restoring its beauty and rendering it in a healthy state.

It is put up at a low price, (37 1-2 cents) that all classes can have access to it. None genuine unless put up in flat bottles, with HAIR OIL impressed in the glass. Also, to prevent imposition, it will be signed by the Proprietor, Wm Brown, 481 Washington, corner of Eliot Street, Boston.

For sale in Bangor by G. W. Holden, and Whittier & Guild, In Portland by J. Durgin & Co. and Wm. W. Lincoln and by most of the wholesale Druggists in Boston. wep14taw6m oct 24 1838

DR. BRANDRETH'S GENUINE PILLS.

Doctor Sangrado's system still
Lives in the world, to kill, to kill!

THIS system does indeed live still and is practised by the very men who laugh at Doctor Sangrado as a ninny. Yet, the immaculate Faculty!! Let this truth be impressed upon every mind, that all pain and weakness proceed from the presence of morbid, stagnant and corrupt humors IN THE BODY by which the circulation of the blood is impeded, and that the only sensible method is to remove them from the stomach & bowels, then take

Brandreth's Pills, concocted forth
From the pure products of the earth;
They are no utter sad ploy,
They often save, but ne'er destroy!

BLEEDING ALWAYS IMPROPER.

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood." Leviticus, chapter xvii, v. 11. When the properties of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS shall have been appreciated, bleeding will no longer be thought of as a remedy for diseases; for in violent inflammations, eight or ten of them will take, in the course of two or three hours, more of the impure humors from the body, by the stomach and bowels, than bleeding to the extent of forty ounces, and should never [illegible] it should be remembered that the Pills remove ONLY those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation; whereas bleeding removes the essential parts also. How great the prostration of all the corporeal powers after a copious bleeding! On the contrary, what agility and strength is felt after a dose of this medicine; the body is indeed lightened of a load. Nothing is equal to ridding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind, which 84 years have proved never to do injury, but always good. Is the pulse too high? A dose of these Pills will bring it down. Is it too low? The same means will increase it to a proper standard. Is it tremulous, showing nervous excitement? the Pills by soothing the system will allay it.

Thousands of the most respectable citizens of the United States will be referred to with pleasure by Dr. B. who have for many years been in the habit of being bled as often as four times in a year; and whose constitutions, in consequence, were becoming weaker and weaker, but who, since they have made use of these Pills, have never lost a drop of their precious blood. When any of their old symptoms appeared, instead of running to a Doctor and having a vein opened, they have swallowed six or eight Pills, which soon removed the vitiated humors that were impeding the blood in its circulation. Those sensible people, simply by the use of these invaluable Pills, are increasing every day the powers both of body and mind, which, by the practice of bleeding, were both becoming dreadfully impaired.

The following cases of cure, by the use of Brandreth's Pills, alone, are submitted with respect, to the unprejudiced portion of the Boston public:—

ASTHMA CURED.—The following extraordinary case of Asthma, which is authenticated by seventeen respectable and well known inhabitants of Greenwich, Ct. deserves, by all persons, a careful perusal. The most prejudiced must own that evidence is on the side of these Pills, which, by the cures they are daily making show there is no necessity for any other medicine.

This is to certify that Thomas S. Brown of Greenwich, Ct., was taken with a cold, numb feeling, on the 13th of June last. He began to cough and raise phlegm and in the course of twenty-four hours about two quarts of thick white jelly was expectorated. Three physicians in Stamford, Greenwich, and Sawpits, pronounced it a nervous humid spasmodic Asthma, and after prescribing for some time to no effect, the three consulted together, and finally declared that they could do him no good; it would and must result in consumption, and death would ensue, and that in a very short time. The pain was excessive in all parts of his body, and the difficulty in breathing was such as almost to cause strangulation. He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and finally gave himself up to death. After being in this miserable state nearly two months, he saw an advertisement of Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and immediately sent by Capt. J. Waring of Greenwich, for a box, and found relief in the course of a few days, which encouraged him to persevere, and now having taken them for about four months according to the direction, is entirely recovered, and so far as we can judge, in consequence of taking the above Pills, which we have also used in our families, and have found them invaluable.

Signed. Greenwich, 22d Feb. 1836.

Certificate of John Goulden, who has known the above pills forty years:—

I hereby certify, that I have known Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill for upwards of forty years they were used by my family connections, in the county of Dorset, England, since the year 1795, many of whom they cured of old standing complaints. JOSEPH GOULDEN.

Bridgeport, Feb. 18, 1836.

Certificate of cure of CHOLICS, FITS, &c. &c. From a BOSTONIAN, whose address is at the foot. [TRUE COPY.]

To Dr. Benj. Brandreth:

My dear Sir,—I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Vegetable Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a complaint supposed to be caused by PAINT. I was subject to a great coldness through my whole system, attended with frequent pain, and severe cholics; for the year. I have also been subject to fits, which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child. I am ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence, No 17 Sudbury street, to any one who wishes to inquire.

I feel the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I labored have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I shall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you.

Believe me to remain,
Very respectfully,
JOHN LUMMUS,
Boston 17 Sudbury street.
